

NEW SECRETARY GENERAL NEWS FROM ORDO SOCIALIS

The Academic Association Ordo Socialis whose membership has meanwhile grown to 64, has a new secretary general: Beate Kaltefleiter, Secretary graduate. After a rather long maternity pause she started her activity as secretary general on 1st January 2009. Mrs. Kaltefleiter lives with her husband and two children in Low-Rhenania and is fond of the new challenges.

We convey our sincere thanks to Mrs. Dr. Clara E. Laeis who at the end of last year has terminated her very engaged activity as Secretary General. The actual homepage www.ordosocialis.de will remain her steady merit.

According to recent information the long-awaited publication in China of the book by Joseph Cardinal Höffner on Christian social teaching is immanent. The book will be printed this spring in Shanghai.

Moreover, numerous new prints have been taken up in the homepage these last weeks.

BKU-Journal 01/09